Person specification: Senior Campaigner (Forests / Wildlife)

Essential

Knowledge

- Knowledge of campaigns work on forests -illegal timber and wildlife trafficking
- Knowledge of Office365 and fully proficient in Windows applications such as Word, Excel and Outlook and other applications.

Experience

- Extensive experience campaigning, or similar field
- Experience in campaigning on environmental issues
- Experience in political and technical analysis relevant to forests and wildlife issues.
- Experienced in delivering targeted research projects and tasks that include analysing, documenting and reporting findings.
- Desk-based research and field-based activities.
- Experienced in field work including ability to document and explain findings.
- Line managing staff

Skills

- Strong interpersonal and time management skills.
- Good written skills for internal and external report writing.
- Ability to administrate project commitments.
- Ability to analyse complex social, political, economic and environmental parameters in ways that inform EIA’s work and communications.
- Ability to work with different culture and languages
- Able to work under pressure and to deadlines

Other

- Willing and able to travel at short notice, including to potentially challenging environments
- A legal right to work in the UK

Desirable

- An understanding of Africa and East Asia politics, environmental and human rights issues is an asset
- Understanding and experience of international initiatives such as CITES, UNODC administered Conventions and Commissions, UN CBD, Financial Action Task Force
- Experience working with indigenous communities.
- An understanding of business and financial issues
• Ability to speak, read or write relevant Asian languages: Bahasa Indonesia, Thai, Vietnamese, Mandarin and Burmese. European languages (French, Spanish, German, Italian) an asset.